- Students are required to purchase their own books and uniforms.
- The deposit will be collected when the student is admitted.
- We will refund your deposit one month after receiving written notice of your child's withdrawal from our school. Parents should take careful note that July 29 5pm is the absolute deadline for applications from students leaving KIS to get deposits refunded
- Your deposit is non-refundable if your child never attends the school. In case the child is going to withdraw from the school, one complete month's notice in advance is required. Notices given after the first day of a month will be considered as notices for the following full month with no pro-rata refund.
- KIS encourages parents to pay school fees by auto payment system. Otherwise please pay school fees by cheque made payable to "Korean International School".
