

Dear Parents,

You are cordially invited to attend this year's Korean International School
Secondary Section- Chinese New Year Assembly.

Time: 9:20-10:20am

Venue: KIS Gymnasium (3rd Floor)

Date: Thursday, January 31, 2019

Note: Since it's a Chinese New Year it's a free dress day on January 31, 2019, Students' are encouraged to wear anything red, orange, gold or yellow.

Followed by KIS- Multicultural Food Festival

Time: 10:20-11:40 am

Venue: Open area in front of the Principal's office

Date: Thursday, January 31, 2019

Event Details: Come and enjoy indulging yourself in tasting some diverse food cuisine from different ethnicities.

Note: Please remind your son or daughter to bring in extra cash, if they wish to buy food at the Food Festival.

We intend to promote a greater awareness and appreciation among our students for the different cultures represented in our community. In turn, we are optimistic that this will promote a greater respect for cultural differences.

Important Information:

- Parents are requested to stay for the entire assembly to reduce disruption to the performers and to show support for all the students' effort and hard work.
- After the assembly Parents are expected to go down to join the “KIS-Multicultural Food Festival” in the open area near the Principal's office, the students will follow the parents in the fair.
- Parents with their children are requested to queue in front of different stalls to buy food, join the workshop and take pictures at the photobooth. Please cooperate with us to make this event a success.

These events are promoting our Sense of KIS Family and a great way to represent our school. Please make sure you have this date in your diary.

With kind regards,
C. Chadwick
Principal
